Davne 1953. godine Međunarodna unija za staranje o deci iz Ženeve dala je inicijativu da se 5. oktobra ustanovi Međunarodni dan posvećen deci celog sveta kao „Svetski dan deteta“. Ideja je bila da se skrene pažnja na lepšu i srećniju budućnost sve dece sveta, bez obzira na političku, nacionalnu, versku, rasnu i drugu pripadnost. U Beogradu je 1969. godine tim povodom održan prvi međunarodni festival dečjih pesama i igara „Radost Evrope“ uz podršku gradske vlasti, predsednika Tita, Unicefa i Generalne skupštine Ujedinjenih nacija. U pozivu je bilo naznačeno da će svi segmenti buduće manifestacije biti osmišljeni tako da dečja igra bude u centru svih dešavanja. Druženje i scensko dečje stvaralaštvo tradicionalno se neguje u kontinuitetu pet dana - od 2. do 5. oktobra. Deca nisu u obavezi da pokažu vrhunsko umeće u interpretaciji, već da sklapaju prijateljstva, da upijaju beogradsku lakoću postojanja i autentičnu porodičnu gostoljubivost svojih domaćina. Deca Evrope su umesto u hotele, ušla u domove svojih vršnjaka, uneli su u njih svoj smeh, svoje male tajne, a poneli sa sobom seme dugogodišnjeg prijateljstva i sećanja na ljude koji su tih dana bili njihova porodica. Od tada je prošlo više od pola veka i preko 20.000 dece iz 46 zemalja je posetilo Beograd.

Skoro trideset godina kasnije, (1998) Manifestacija dobija svoj najmlađi segment, koji je jedini takmičarskog karaktera - Međunarodni likovni konkurs, koji svojom raskošnom paletom, okuplja decu i mlade sveta uzrasta od 4 do 18 godina. Ove godine, na adresu Dečjeg kulturnog centra Beograd, stiglo je 1125 radova i to iz gradova širom Srbije, kao i iz: Belgije, Belorusije, Bosne i Hercegovine, Bugarske, Gruzije, Crne Gore, Češke, Indije, Kameruna, Kine, Litvanije, Mađarske, Namibije, Poljske, Rumunije, Rusije, Severne Makedonije, Slovenije, Slovačke, Svazilenda, Šri Lanke, Tajvana. Primećno je da već par godina unazad stiže manje radova, ali njihov kvalitet nije u opadanju. Pri odabiru radova stručni žiri (koga su ove godine činili: dr um. Nevena Popović, likovna umetnica i profesorka na Fakultetu umetnosti u Kosovskoj Mitrovici; Ljubica Tankosić, likovna pedagoškinja i urednica

Long ago, in 1953, the United Nations Children's Fund from Geneva gave the initiative that on October the 5th an international day dedicated to the children of the whole world is established as the "International Children's Day". The idea was to draw attention to a prettier, happier future for all the children of the world, regardless of their political, national, religious, racial and any other orientation. On this occasion, in 1969 the first International Children's Song and Dance Festival "The Joy of Europe" was held in Belgrade, with the support of the city authorities, President Tito, UNICEF and the United Nations General Assembly. The invitation stated that all segments of the future event will be conceived with the children's play as the central motif. Friendship and children's creativity on stage are traditionally celebrated over the course of five days - from the 2nd till the 5th of October. The children are not obliged to show supreme skill in interpretation, but to make friends, absorb the Belgrade lightness of being and the authentic family hospitality of their hosts. Instead of hotels, the children of Europe entered the homes of their peers, filling them with their laughter, their little secrets, and they took with them the beginning of a long-term friendship and memories of the people who, for those five days, were their family. Since then, more than half a century has passed, and over 20,000 children from 46 countries have visited Belgrade.

Almost thirty years later, in 1998, the manifestation gained its youngest segment, the only one that is competitive in its form - the International Art Competition, which gathers the children and youth of the world, from 4 to 18 years of age, around its colourful palette. This year, at the Children's Cultural Centre of Belgrade, we received 1125 works of art, from towns all over Serbia, as well as Belgium, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Georgia, Montenegro, Czech Republic, India, Cameroon, China, Lithuania, Hungary, Namibia, Poland, Romania, Russia, North Macedonia, Slovenia, Slovakia, Swaziland, Sri Lanka, Taiwan. It is noticeable that over the last couple of years we have had fewer works arriving at our address, but their quality remains high. Choosing the works, the expert jury (which this year likovnog programa Dečjeg kulturnog centra u Novom Sadu; Marko Šerer, primenjeni umetnik i nastavnik u Školi za dizajn u Beogradu) je imao dosta izazovan zadatak, jer ocenjivanje zahteva odgovornost i dubinsku analizu mnogo složenih komponenti koje čine jedan rad dobrim. Postoje mnoge individualne razlike između dece u istoj starosnoj kategoriji, različiti likovni temperamenti kao i drugačiji pedagoški pristupi koji su u mnogo čemu uslovljeni sociološkom raznolikošću. Žiri je procenjivao kvalitet likovnog izražavanja, bogatstvo likovne forme, a na starijem uzrastu i tehničku sposobnost dece i mladih. Posebno je akcenat stavljan na maštovitost u rešavanju zamišljenih likovnih ideja.

Likovno dečje stvaralaštvo uslovljeno je vremenom i sredinom u kojima radovi nastaju. Oni predstavljaju izuzetno važnu vizuelnu belešku odrastanja, detinjstva i mladosti, ukoliko nastaju kao rezultat slobodnog izražavanja uz podršku pedagoga. Zato želim da istaknem veliku zahvalnost likovnim pedagozima i roditeljima koji brižno neguju jednu od najraskošnijih aktivnosti koja više od bilo koje druge razvija kreativno mišljenje – likovno stvaralaštvo!

Izložba pohvaljenih i nagrađenih radova XXVI Međunarodnog likovnog kokursa otvorena je za sve posetioce od 2. do 22. oktobra u Galeriji Dečjeg kulturnog centra Beograd consisted of: Nevena Popović, PhD in Arts, artist and professor at the Faculty of Arts in Kosovska Mitrovica; Ljubica Tankosić, art teacher and editor of the art program of the Children's Cultural Centre in Novi Sad; Marko Šerer, applied artist and teacher at the Belgrade School of Design) had a very challenging task before them, as grading requires responsibility and deep analysis of a large number of complex components which make a piece of art good. There are numerous individual differences between children in the same age category, different artistic temperaments, and different pedagogical approaches, greatly affected by their sociological diversity. The jury took in consideration the quality of artistic expression, richness of the art form, and in older categories the technical capabilities of children and young people as well. Special emphasis was placed on the creativity in solution of imagined artistic ideas.

Children's art creation is affected by the time and environment in which those works of art are created. They represent an exceptionally important visual mark of growing up, childhood and youth, if they are created as a result of free expression with the teacher's support. This is why I would like to express my gratitude to the art teachers and parents who carefully nourish one of the most magnificent activities which develops creative thinking more than any other – art!

The Exhibition of the awarded and recognized works from the XXVI International Art Competition is open to all visitors from 2nd till 22nd of October in the Gallery of the Children's Cultural Centre in Belgrade.

Bila mi je velika čast što sam ove godine imao priliku da budem član žirija manifestacije "Radost Evrope" u Dečjem kulturnom centru Beograda (DKCB). To je događaj koji već godinama ostavlja neizbrisiv trag u sećanju svakog deteta koje učestvuje. Tradicija koja traje, i svake godine nas iznova podseća na bezgraničnu moć dečje mašte.

Pred nama, članovima žirija, bio je izuzetno težak zadatak. Deca iz celog sveta učestvuju, a konkurencija je bila ogromna. Toliko kategorija, još više radova, a samo ograničen broj mesta za nagrade i pohvale. Ipak, taj izazov je istovremeno i zadovoljstvo, jer svaki rad koji smo videli nosi posebnu priču i energiju.

Sećam se davne 2016. godine, kada sam bio volonter u DKCB-u, pomažući u klasifikaciji radova. Bilo je to nezaboravno iskustvo – puno posla, ali neprocenljivo uživanje u posmatranju onoga što me i danas vezuje za centar u ulozi žirija: mašta i kreativnost deteta. To su snage koje se ne mogu meriti ni sa čim. Dečji radovi su istinska duhovna energija koja nas, starije, inspiriše da nikada ne odustanemo, kako u pedagogiji, tako i u sopstvenom umetničkom stvaralaštvu.

Veliku zahvalnost dugujem Dečjem kulturnom centru Beograd na ovogodišnjem pozivu da budem deo žirija, jer su time prepoznali i validirali moj rad i umetničku praksu. Izuzetno mi je drago zbog toga. Uvek je lep osećaj kada te institucija u kojoj si odrastao prepoznaje kao umetnika i pedagoga...I pre svega, podseća me na ono dete koje sam bio.

Kada porastem, biću maštovit kao dete! To je ono što moramo čuvati, kako bismo opstali u svetu umetnosti.

Marko Šerer, primenjeni umetnik
i nastavnik u Školi za dizajn u Beogradu

It was a great honor for me to be a jury member this year at the "Joy of Europe" event in the Children's Cultural Center of Belgrade (DKCB). This is a long-standing tradition that leaves an indelible mark on the memory of every child who participates. Year after year, it reminds us of the limitless power of children's imagination.

We, the jury members, were faced with an incredibly difficult challenge. Children from all over the world participated, and the competition was fierce. So many categories, even more artworks, yet only a limited number of spots for awards and recognition. However, this challenge is also a great pleasure, as every work we saw carries a unique story and energy.

I remember back in 2016 when I was a volunteer at DKCB, helping to classify the children's works. It was an unforgettable experience – a lot of hard work, but an immeasurable joy in observing what still connects me to the center today in my role as a jury member: children's imagination and creativity. These are forces that cannot be measured by anything. Children's artworks are true spiritual energy that inspires us, the older generation, to never give up, both in pedagogy and in our personal artistic endeavors.

I am deeply grateful to DKCB for inviting me to be part of this year's jury, as they have recognized and validated my work and artistic practice, which means a lot to me. It is always a wonderful feeling when the institution where you grew up recognizes you as an artist and educator. And above all, it reminds me of the child I once was.

When I grow up, I will be as imaginative as a child. That is what we must hold on to in order to survive in the world of art.

U Beogradu je 1969. povodom proslave Svetskog dana deteta održan prvi međunarodni festival dečjih pesama i igara „Radost Evrope“ uz podršku gradske vlasti, predsednika Tita, Unicefa i Generalne skupštine Ujedinjenih nacija. Od tada je prošlo više od pola veka i preko 20.000 dece je posetilo Beograd. Glavni stub manifestacije su od početka domaćini – roditelji, koji u svoje domove primaju dečake i devojčice Evrope, pružajući naše tradicionalno gostoprimstvo. Osnovna ideja Manifestacije je bila i ostala upoznavanje i stvaranje prijateljstava, a dečja igra je u centru svih dešavanja. 1998. godine, jubilarni 25. susret „Radost Evrope“ dobio je jedan novi programski sadržaj – Međunarodni likovni konkurs na kojem od osnivanja učestvuju pojedinci, predškolske ustanove, škole, dečji likovni ateljei, dečji kulturni centri i slične ustanove i asocijacije iz celog sveta (deca i mladi uzrasta od 4 do 18 godina). Radovi rađeni u tehnici olovke, tempere, gvaša, akvarela, pastela, tuša, kolaža i grafike već 26 godina svojom raskošnom paletom čine deo tradicionalne manifestacije. Svoje mesto nalaze i na prigodnoj poštanskoj marki „Radost Evrope“ kao svedočanstvo da samo ono iskonsko i slikano i naivno, nosi u sebi svežu i jaku stvaralačku snagu.

Ove godine akcenat je stavljen na lepotu flore i faune, na poštovanje i brigu o autohtonim biljkama i životinjama širom sveta.

Probudimo ekološku svest! Svet ostaje na generacijama koje dolaze i koje će bolje od nas izgraditi budućnost u skladu sa prirodom. Ovakva marka na najlepši mogući način daje podršku prirodnom i kreativnom načinu življenja!

Motiv na marki je rad Sofie Mitnikove (9 godina, Slovačka). Autori radova na vinjetama su: Mihailo Vuković (10 godina, Srbija), Nika Ageeva (7 godina, Rusija), Bambi Fong (5 godina, Hongkong, SAR NR Kina), Šijam Čintankumar Bat (14 godina, Indija), Nadežda Ivanova (8 godina, Belorusija), Ema Monkute (14 godina, Litvanija), Aleks Vodušek (13 godina, Slovenija). Autor rada na koverti je Lav Tanasković (9 godina, Srbija).

In 1969, on the occasion of the World Children's Day, the first international festival of children's songs and dances "Joy of Europe" was held in Belgrade with the support of the city government, President Tito, UNICEF and the United Nations General Assembly. More than half a century has passed since then and over 20,000 children have visited Belgrade. From the beginning, the main pillar of the event has been the hosts – parents, who welcome boys and girls from Europe into their homes, offering our traditional hospitality. The main idea of the event was and remains getting to know each other and creating friendships, and children's play is at the centre of all events. In 1998, the 25th jubilee meeting "Joy of Europe" received a new program content – the International Art Competition, in which individuals, preschool institutions, schools, children's art studios, children's cultural centres and similar institutions participate since its establishment as well as associations from all over the world (children and the youth aged 4 to 18). Artworks created in the pencil, tempera, gouache, watercolour, pastel, ink, collage or graphics techniques have been making up the rich palette of the traditional manifestation for 26 years. They also find their place on the commemorative postage stamps "Joy of Europe" as a testimony that only the original, hand drawn and naive, carries fresh and strong creative power, because children have always drawn and enjoyed the creative process itself.

This year, the emphasis is on the beauty of flora and fauna, on respecting and caring for indigenous plants and animals around the world.

Let's awaken ecological awareness! The world depends on the generations to come, who will build a future in harmony with nature better than we have. This stamp supports a natural and creative way of living in the most beautiful way possible!

The motif on the stamp is the work of Sofia Mitnikova (age 9, Slovakia). The authors of the works on the vignettes are as follows: Mihailo Vuković (age 10, Serbia), Nika Ageeva (age 7, Russia), Bambi Fong (age 5, Hongkong, SAR PRC), Shyam Chintankumar Bhatt (age 14, India), Nadezhda Ivanova (age 8, Belarus), Ema Monkute (age 14, Lithuania), Alex Vodušek (age 13, Slovenia). The author of the work on the envelope is Lav Tanasković (age 13, Serbia).
