„To se bolje može iskazati na paleti, nego izreći rečima“

Vinsent Van Gog
(1853 – 1890)

Ovogodišnji međunarodni likovni konkurs obeležava dvadeset i sedam godina od kada čini sastavni deo tradicionalne gradske manifestacije koja je po mnogim segmentima i dalje jedinstvena u Evropi. Svojom raskošnom paletom okuplja decu i mlade sveta uzrasta od 4 do 18 godina. Od osnivanja, na konkursu učestvuju pojedinci, predškolske ustanove, škole, dečji likovni ateljei, dečji kulturni centri i slične ustanove i asocijacije iz celog sveta. Radovi rađeni u tehnici olovke, tempere, gvaša, akvarela, pastela, tuša, kolaža i grafike, već skoro tri decenije čine važan segment tradicionalne manifestacije.

Na adresu Dečjeg kulturnog centra Beograd, ove godine stiglo je oko 3000 radova, iz gradova širom Srbije, kao i iz gradova iz: Belorusije, Bosne i Hercegovine, Bugarske, Egipta, Indije, Italije, Jermenije, Litvanije, Makedonije, Namibije, Poljske, Rumunije, Rusije, Slovačke, Slovenije, Tajlanda, Tajvana, Hrvatske, Češke, Crne Gore, Finske i iz Hongkonga.

Stručni žiri je kao i svake godine imao dosta odgovoran zadatak – da iščita likovne zapise dece i mladih širom sveta koji se pojavljuju u mnogo različitih varijanti. Od pristiglih radova bilo je potrebno izdvojiti one koji autentičnošću, bogatstvom likovnih formi i maštovitošću predstavljaju najbolje primere likovnog stvaralaštva u svih pet starosnih kategorija.

Stručni žiri činili su: dr um. Nevena Popović, profesorka na Fakultetu umetnosti Zvečan - Kosovska Mitrovica Univerziteta u Prištini; Lola Lukić, likovna pedagoškinja i predsednica Udruženja likovnih pedagoga Srbije i Marko Šerer, primenjeni umetnik i likovni pedagog u Školi za dizajn u Beogradu.

Stručno selektovani likovni radovi čine izuzetno vredan deo arhiva Dečjeg kulturnog centra Beograd i predstavljaju značajan dokument vizuelne kulture detinjstva. Na taj način je omogućeno svim zainteresovanim profesionalcima (likovnim pedagogima iz osnovnih i srednjih škola, profesorima sa umetničkih fakulteta, psiholozima, studentima i naučnicima) istraživački rad sa željom da se vizuelna kultura detinjstva sačuva od zaborava.

Važno je istaći da je suština međunarodnog likovnog konkursa upravo izložba nagrađenih i pohvaljenih radova u Galeriji Dečjeg kulturnog centra Beograd. Svaki izlagač se predstavlja u svojoj likovnoj posebnosti i svom specifičnom likovnom temperamentu. Taj čarobni trenutak pretvara galerijski prostor u intimni studio u kom se odvija likovni susret i proslavlja savremeno stvaralaštvo dece i mladih.

Ovom prilikom želim da zahvalim svim likovnim pedagogima, vaspitačima, roditeljima i starateljima širom sveta koji u vremenu punom izazova, dilema i teškoća, sa puno posvećenosti neguju i razvijaju likovni potencijal kod dece i mladih. To je izuzetno zahtevan i suptilan posao, ali iznad svega to je dar ljubavi!

“That is something more easily expressed on a palette than put in words.”

Vincent Van Gogh
(1853 – 1890)

This year's International Art Competition marks twenty-seven years since it has been an integral part of the traditional city event which is in its many segments still unique in Europe. With its lush palette, it gathers children and young artists of the world from 4 to 18 years of age. Ever since it has been founded it has counted on the participation of individuals, preschool institutions, schools, children's art studios, children's cultural centres and similar institutions and associations from all over the world. Works in the techniques of pencil, tempera, gouache, aquarelle, pastel, Indian ink, collage, and graphics have been making up an important segment of our traditional event for almost three decades.

At the address of the Children's Cultural Centre in Belgrade this year we received around 3000 works, from towns all over Serbia, as well as Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Egypt, India, Italy, Armenia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Namibia, Poland, Romania, Russia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Thailand, Taiwan, Croatia, Czech Republic, Montenegro, Finland and Hong Kong.

Like every year, our jury of experts had a very important task before them – to read through the artistic messages of the children and young people from all over the world, which can take many various shapes and forms. Among all the works we received, they had to choose the ones which, with their authenticity, rich artistic forms and lush imagination represent the best examples of artistic creation in all five age categories.

Our expert jury was formed by: Nevena Popović, PhD in Arts, professor at the Faculty of Arts Zvečan – Kosovska Mitrovica of the Priština University; Lola Lukić, art teacher and President of the Association of Art Teachers of Serbia, and Marko Šerer, applied artist and art teacher at the Belgrade School of Design.

Expertly selected works make up an exquisite and valuable part of the archives of the Children's Cultural Centre in Belgrade, and they are an important document of the childhood visual culture. This way all interested professionals (art teachers working in primary and high schools, art university professors, psychologists, students, and scientists) can use them in their research, aiming to preserve the childhood visual culture from oblivion.

It is important to point out that the essential part of the International Art Competition is precisely the exhibition of awarded and praised works at the Gallery of the Children's Cultural Centre in Belgrade. Each artist is represented in their artistic uniqueness and their specific artistic temperament. This magical moment turns the gallery space into an intimate studio in which the encounter with the art takes place, and the contemporary art of children and young people is celebrated.

On this occasion I would like to thank all art teachers, preschool teachers, parents, and guardians all over the world who, in this time of challenges, dilemmas and difficulties, dedicate themselves to nourishing and developing the artistic potential of the children and young people. This is an extremely demanding and subtle work, but more than anything else, it is a gift of love!

Lidija Seničar,

POŠTANSKA MARKA

Tradicionalno, odabrani radovi nalaze svoje mesto na prigodnoj poštanskoj marki „Radost Evrope”. Poštanska marka, osim što je sredstvo plaćanja poštanskih usluga, istovremeno predstavlja jedan od najprepoznatljivijih simbola nacionalne kulture.

Ove godine akcenat je stavljen na lepotu i snagu mladosti, jer upravo ovakva marka na najlepši način daje podršku prirodnom i kreativnom načinu življenja.

Motiv na marki je rad Darije Nikitjuk (14 godina, Belorusija). Autori radova na vinjetama su: Tara Vorkapić (14 godina, Srbija), Lena Simić (14 godina, Srbija), Hong-Rui Ju (8 godina, Tajvan), Rebeka Zolero (7 godina, Slovačka), Aleksandra Caneva (6 godina, Bugarska), Terezia Adamska (8 godina, Slovačka), Sofia Tičina (13 godina, Belorusija). Autor rada na koverti je Artemi Čahlov (11 godina, Belorusija).

Stručna saradnja: Lidija Seničar, urednica međunarodnog likovnog konkursa „Radost Evrope”, Dečji kulturni centar Beograd.

Grafička obrada izdanja: Jakša Vlahović, akademski grafičar

FOR THE STAMP

Traditionally, the selected works are also represented on the post stamp printed for the occasion of the "Joy of Europe". Besides being a means of payment for postal services, the stamp is also one of the most recognizable symbols of national culture.

This year we chose to put emphasis on the beauty and strength of the youth because this is precisely the type of stamp that most wonderfully supports the natural and creative way of living.

The motif in the stamp is the work of Daria Nikityuk (14 years old, Belarus). The authors of the works represented in the vignettes are: Tara Vorkapić (14 years old, Serbia), Lena Simić (14 years old, Serbia), Hong-Rui Yu (8 years old, Taiwan), Rebeka Zollerova (7 years old, Slovakia), Aleksandra Tsaneva (6 years old, Bulgaria), Terezia Adamska (8 years old, Slovakia), Sofia Tychyna (13 years old, Belarus). The author of the envelope artwork is Artemy Schahlov (11 years old, Belarus).

Expert cooperation: Lidija Seničar, editor of the International Art Competition "Joy of Europe", Children's Cultural Centre, Belgrade.
